

ETHICS & TECHNOLOGY

A Tufts Faculty Workshop

Thursday, August 30, 2018
Rabb Room, Lincoln-Filene Building

Working Lunch 12:00-12:30PM

Panel One: Media, Music, and Experience

Speakers: Avner Baz, Benedetta Giovanola, Melinda Latour, Nick Seaver

Coffee Break 1:45-2PM

Panel Two: Ethics & Engineering

Speakers: Mario De Caro, Charles Inouye, Fiorenzo Omenetto, Matthias Scheutz

Next Steps 3:15-3:45PM

Reception 3:45-4:30PM

This workshop is available to faculty across Tufts University who are interested in expanding ethics instruction in their courses or departments. The workshop is designed to share ideas and to consider ways to incorporate ethics into the curriculum in Arts and Sciences and Engineering at Tufts.

Sponsored by the Department of Philosophy, the Program in Civic Studies, the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life, the Deans of Arts and Sciences, and the Dean of Undergraduate Education, School of Engineering

Interested faculty should RSVP to Erin Kelly at ekelly@tufts.edu.

Fiorenzo Omenetto
Professor
Biomedical Engineering

Melinda Latour
Assistant Professor
Music

Matthias Scheutz
Professor
Computer Science

Avner Baz
Professor
Philosophy

Nick Seaver
Assistant Professor
Anthropology

Benedetta Giovanola
Visiting Associate
Professor
Philosophy

Mario De Caro
Visiting Professor
Philosophy

Charles Inouye
Professor of Japanese
Literature and Culture